

PETAL PARAMOUNT

Petal Paramount is a boutique floral studio based in Adelaide, South Australia established in 2019 by Anna Williams.

At Petal Paramount I only take on a limited amount of weddings per year. This means I can give each couple 100% and be there for you through the whole planning process.

I enjoy using textural elements to give each piece of work feel and dimension. I like to use seasonal flowers so that each arrangement is unique to you and the time of your event. I embrace each couple and we work together to create your wedding with my modern approach to florals and execute them in my own unique Petal Paramount way.

I am a qualified florist having completed my studies in Perth where I was lucky enough to learn from some of Perth's greatest talent. I do the consulting, planning, designing, buying, creating of all arrangements.

I am happy to travel around South Australia, no venue is too far and I cater to intimate and large weddings.
